		Records - Seller's accounting system shall be subject to Buyer's approval. Seller shall maintain detailed, complete, and accurate accounting records of the hours of direct labor performed hereunder, and the hours of such labor billed by Seller shall be supported by individual daily job timecards (preferably signed by the workers), and by evidence of actual payment either through payroll records or cancelled checks. Charges for materials must be supported by paid invoices or material requisitions. All records pertaining to this order shall be preserved for at least five (5) years after date of completion. Inspection and Audit - Representatives of Buyer and/or the Government shall have the right to inspect and audit Seller's plant, books, and records pertaining to this Purchase Order, and the work hereunder, at all times during regular business hours, and shall have the right to determine the correctness and propriety of the costs and charges billed by Seller. If any such inspection or audit discloses any mispricing or materials or errors in the computation of direct labor hours, resulting in overpayments by Buyer, the amount thereof shall be refunded to Buyer.
